Communication skills At first I am a shy person, but after becoming comfortable with my new situation, I start to communicate very well with people around me. As I see it, I have good communication skills. I avoid conflicts and I try to reach consensus when it's necessary.

Organisational / managerial skills Student Councillor membership (for an academic year – as long as I did not move from Apafi College).
 Referent position at RMDSZ Economic Directorate.

Job-related skills I am a highly motivated person with a strong desire to improve my existing skills. I do accurate work during my university projects and work tasks – confirmed by my previous results.
 I like to do my work precisely, I see myself as a perfectionist.

- good command of office suite Microsoft Office Word, Excel, Access, PowerPoint
- Beginner Android Software Development experience – in Android Studio
- favourite programming language: JAVA
- known DBMS -s: MS SQL Server, MySQL, Firebase, Firestore

- At the university I realized many projects in Android platform in groups of two and solely too:
 1. Confectionery – an application in which I had to use multiple design patterns learned at classes, connected with Firestore realtime database;
 2. HotelReviewer – connected with Firestore realtime database;
 3. Bridge – a simple app that demonstrates how bridge design pattern works;
 4. World Currency – my Bsc diploma work;
 5. WhatToDoCalendar – my first Android app (realized during summer practice) – connected with Firebase realtime database

 - license paper theme: Business application development in Android from planning to development – World Currency application mentioned above

 - I have few experience in ERP systems, we did not put very much into practice the general knowledge we have learnt about it, expect of a week of SAP seminars. But as I see it, during the University, I gained some theoretical background and the ability to improve my skills further.
- Other skills
- My passion is literature, especially poem and interpretation reading, but I like novels too. Sadly, recently this hobby of mine is a bit neglected.

 - I won Special Award on Mikes Kelemen Hungarian Language and Literature Course competition's national section in 2013.
